

This week's task:

This is a classic 'show don't tell' task. Look at the swimmers in the picture and describe them. Show they are cold without telling your reader.

The image of the penguins on the ice is to give you ideas for figurative language. Try to include at least three references.